REICHSTAG WILL VOTE ON POLICY OF BERLIN GOVT.

Appeal of Simons to Pres. Harding Will Be Approved.

Result May Be Different If Move Fails to Get Results.

Berlin, April 27.—The German cabinet faced today a vote by the Reichstag on the government's policy in its reparations movement, including its appeal to President Harding for mediation and the new reparations proposals, just submitted to Washington.

Approval of this policy was forecast in political quarters, as the approving resolution was to be presented by the German people's party and the clericals and was reported also as likely to have the support of the majority socialists.

Just what the cabinet's fate will be, however, if the effort for a settlement made through President Harding should fail, is another question.

It seems generally considered that Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister, materially strengthened his position in the Reichstag as a result of his speech of yesterday, in which he not only dealt with Germany's appeal to President Harding but in which he gave what the party leaders designate as the most illuminating analysis of the situation issued by him. He was only frequently interrupted while reading his statement, the opposition in nationalist quarters being confined to muffled expressions of disapproval.

CANTON MAY LOSE ITS NATIONAL GUARD TROOP

Columbus, April 27.—Alleged failure of the Stark County Fair association to live up to its promise to allow the state to use stables at the county fair grounds may cause Canton to lose its troop of Ohio National guard cavalry, a 4th Ashabula.

Guard officials said that the fair association withdrew its promise to erect a fair ground stables, expressing fear that the army horses might transmit some disease to pure bred horses and racers at the fair grounds.

If the Canton chamber of commerce succeeds in obtaining money to erect a cheap, temporary armory for the horses and troop, the troop will remain, it is said, otherwise, it will go to some other city.

TOWN WIPED OUT BY WIND STORM

Eighteen Killed and More Than Score Injured When Lumber Town Is Hit By Tornado.

Hattiesburg, Miss., April 27.—The little lumber and farming community of Braxton was virtually swept out of existence by a tornado yesterday, a heap of smoking ruins and hardly a standing structure marked the town site today. The storm struck with just one great roar and the twisting winds hurled the little town almost into ruins among which lay the bodies of possibly 18 dead and more than a score of injured.

Entirely cut off from the world by telephone and telegraph communications, survivors struggled to the town of D'Lo, where they gave first word of the disaster. Railroad officials there spread the news and rescue and aid was rushed forward with state troops sent to take charge.

A train loaded with tents, nurses, soldiers and doctors left Jackson for the scene of the disaster last night. In the meantime probably all of those seriously hurt had been taken to the hospital at D'Lo where every possible attention was given them.

Among the known dead were R. P. Everett, president of the Bank of Braxton and Dr. J. N. Chandler, physician.

"BRONCHO BILLY" SUED BY ACTRESS ON SALARY CLAIM

Kitty Gordon.

Kitty Gordon is suing Gilbert M. Anderson known to the film world as "Broncho Billy" and L. Lawrence Weber for $15,000 for alleged breach of contract.

Miss Gordon alleges she was engaged in a series of photoplays for a period of fifty-two weeks, at $1,250 a week, plus thirty-five per cent of the profits. She adds that after one picture the two managers ceased to live up to the contract and it took her twelve weeks to get another engagement. She is suing for salary for that period of time. Anderson and Weber deny the allegations.

HARDING SENDS NOTE TO EDITORS

Tells Associated Press Men He Regrets He Cannot Be With Them at Annual Luncheon.

New York, April 27.—A letter from President Harding bespeaking a continuance of the lofty motives that inspired American newspapers during the war was read yesterday at the annual luncheon of The Associated Press at the Waldorf Astoria.

Regretting that he could not yield to the temptation to play truant and attend the luncheon of fellow publishers he also expressed the hope that the administration would be able to destroy and retain the lavish measure of good will and confidence accorded it thus far.

Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, in behalf of the gathering, pledged support and sympathy to President Harding in the great tasks he is confronting and gave the only toast offered on these occasions:

"The president of the United States, which was held in connection with the annual meeting, was John W. Davis, formerly Ambassador to Great Britain who made his first appearance before the members as general counsel for the Associated Press."

Remarking that editorial comment was secondary to the news column influence upon public opinion he congratulated The Associated Press "because by the general verdict of mankind it has performed its duty without bias, without prejudice and without partisanship and in an earnest pursuit of the truth where it might be found."

Foreseeing that foreign policy must become the most important factor in our national life, he said, could be based upon information transmitted with exactness.

In this connection he gave personal views without, he said, desiring to arouse controversy. He suggested that the constitution required a two-thirds vote in the senate to ratify a treaty be abrogated in favor of a majority vote and that diplomatic and consular agents be compensated adequately.

LEAVES SUICIDE NOTES, GIRL THEN DISAPPEARS

Cincinnati, April 27.—"When you get this I will be dead. I am not afraid to die. It is better so. Good bye."

That was a sentence in one of five farewell letters Minta Ward, 18, a pretty Kentucky girl, left in a room at 122 East Ninth street Monday night. This morning she had vanished and the police are conducting a search for her.

One of the letters was written to "Mamma" and was in an envelope addressed to Shelby Ward, Lexington, Ky. Another was to Miss Rebekah Ward Jackson. A third letter was to Miss Dorothy Ward, Hazard, Ky. A fourth was addressed to Robert Ward, 440 North Third street, Hamilton. The fifth was to Dan Morgan, London, Ky. ## MODERN METHODS WOULD MEAN BIG SAVING TO ROADS

Unions Present Exhibit Showing How to Save Over Million.

Declares Public Is Not Getting Money's Worth From Railroad.

Chicago, April 27.—The railway labor unions fighting wage reductions before the Railroad Labor board increased their charges of waste and inefficient on the part of railroad managements by a quarter of a billion dollars today. In a supplemental exhibit to that filed last night, setting forth alleged waste of a billion dollars, the employees charge that possible savings totalling $1,275,500,000 could be effected by the railroads if they would introduce modern methods in maintenance and operation if the railroad industry.

The larger American railroads spent nearly six billion dollars for operating expenses last year, the exhibit showed, carrying 47,000,000,000 passengers one mile and 490,000,000,000 tons of freight one mile.

It can be demonstrated that $6,000,000,000 is altogether too much to move the traffic in hand," the report said, "that failure to introduce savings rests primarily with railroad management and that the public accordingly is not getting a dollars worth of service for the dollar it spends in rates."

Freight car performance, due to inefficiency, leads to "startling deductions," the report continued, saying that a freight car travels an average of only 25 miles a day is loaded about two thirds of the time and that five and six tenths to seven per cent of all freight cars are unseizable. A table on car performance showed that of the New England roads, the Boston and Albany averaged 32.2 miles a day while the New Haven had but 12.8 miles.

In the great lakes section, the Grand Trunk Western averaged 32.7 miles, while in the western region the Union Pacific averaged 32.3 and the Denver and Rio Grande 17.6 miles.

National unified control of regional control offers large possible economies, the exhibit said, and cited federal control during the autumn of 1918 "when traffic was at its heaviest with practically a complete absence of transportation stringency, in contrast to the years immediately preceding when such stringency had almost amounted to railroad paralysis."

Sixteen reforms inaugurated under the unified control of the railroad administration and advocated by Director General Meadew which should be continued under peace conditions are set forth in the report.

The exhibit said there were nearly two thousand different types of locomotive in American railway equipment before the war and 2,023 styles of freight cars which the railroad administration cut to 12 standard types.

Shortly afterward another police patrol intercepted and captured three members of the ambush party upon whom loaded revolvers and bombs were found. The three were taken to the military barracks.

NATIONAL C. OF C. DISCUSSES TARIFF LAW

Atlantic City, N. J., April 27.—Revision of the tariff laws, foreign trade, the nation's immigrant and housing problems and remedial measures for the industrial situation were subjects of discussion today at the opening of the ninth annual convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce. More than 4,000 delegates were in attendance.

Among the resolutions to be placed before the assembly was one from the national aircraft underwriters association asking the chamber to urge congress to prepare and enact legislation embodying an aerial code and providing the necessary machinery for its enforcement.

The Kansas City chamber's board of directors recommended that revision of the anti-trust laws be urged in congress. Repeal of all excise taxes and substitution of an equitable sales tax was urged by the national jewelry board of trade. The Chicago Association of Commerce suggested a court of tax appeals to be provided for by congress and appointed by the president.

TEXT OF GERMAN NOTE WITHHELD BY SECY. HUGHES

Communication Discussed By Cabinet But Members Remain Silent.

Has Conferences With Foreign Diplomats Regarding Terms of Note.

Washington, April 27.—Secretary Hughes continued his study today of the German reparations counter proposal to determine the course he will recommend to President Harding for the United States to take toward them. Whether he will favor transmitting them to the allied powers, returning them to Germany or seeking further information from Berlin on the subject will be governed, it is understood, almost entirely by the decisions of the allied governments themselves.

In conference with diplomatic representatives of the powers yesterday, the secretary is understood to have discussed the proposals, but it was not indicated when he closed his office for the night whether he would deem it necessary to continue the conversations today or merely to draft his report for discussion to the president. It was not thought, however, that there would be much delay in taking definite action.

The reparations proposals were understood to have been considered yesterday's cabinet meeting but all comment was withheld.

Notwithstanding the receipt of extensive summaries of the proposals from abroad in press despatches, the text of the communication embodying them has not been given out here and there has been no indication that it will soon be given out for publication.

FRENCH EXPECT ARMY TO MOVE INTO RUHR

Paris, April 27.—Germany's proposal relative to reparations are still being considered by Premier Briand, and it is probable a decision will not be reached before tonight regarding their acceptance or rejection. When such decision is reached it will be communicated first to the United States government, and until such time, Ambassador Jusserand will be given no instructions whatever regarding the French attitude toward Germany's terms.

Officials here were reticent this morning regarding the German proposals but in circles close to the premier there was a belief that the Ruhr district of Germany would be occupied immediately after May 1.

Germany's proposals are entirely insufficient, it is declared in authoritative circles here, being at least 400,000,000 marks below the terms fixed by the supreme allied council in this city last January. The demands decided upon at that time have been considered as a minimum, amounting to approximately 226,000,000 marks.

In discussing the German terms, it is said in well informed circles that in offering an installment of one billion gold marks, Germany made no mention of the 12,000,000,000 marks held by the allies to be payable to Germany. Germany also asks the abandonment of the penalties decided upon in London early in March as well as those stipulated by the treaty of Versailles. Assertion is made that should Germany be exonerated from these obligations, an amount which she would be given an advantage greater than would accrue to the allies from her future payments.

FORCE ONLY ARGUMENT GERMAN WILL RESPECT

London, April 27.—Consideration should be given to the German reparations proposals by the allies, said the Daily News today in discussing the terms of the Berlin government as published here. The newspaper expressed the opinion that the German note was not clear but added:

"On the face of this, they are not terms which the American government is likely to dismiss as unworthy of discussion."

To concede Germany's condition that penal restrictions on trade be withdrawn, "would be an act of justice and wisdom on the part of the allies, Germany ought, perhaps, to do better, but she manifestly is offering beyond comparison more than she can ever extract by invading the Ruhr district."

Reserving judgment as to the acceptability of the proposals until they are more fully examined, the Chronicle said: "Obviously, the imminent fear of the occupation of the Ruhr region produced a degree of repentance in Berlin which no amount of appeals to reason and justice ever produced. If Germany can make these offers, she could just as easily have made more. A few days ago, which proves that force is the only argument she respects."

ENGLAND ASKS MORE LIGHT ON PROPOSALS

London, April 27.—The British government today requested its representatives in Berlin to inquire informally regarding the new German reparations offer for the purpose of clearing up the ambiguity concerning the terms of years in which the payments would be made under the offer.

HOUSE VOTES TO ADJOURN MAY 12

Joint Resolution Is Adopted and It Goes to Senate Where Its Defeat Is Predicted.

Columbus, April 27.—A joint resolution providing for final adjournment of the general assembly on May 12, adopted by the house of representatives last night without dissenting vote, was to come before the senate today. The senate is expected to refuse to agree to the resolution, preferring to recess until next January. Governor Davis is said to have asked both senate and house leaders to adjourn sine die.

It is the plan of the house leaders to practically complete work of the session this week and then recess until May 12, when they will return to act on the biennial appropriation bill and sign bills.

The house is expected to concur today in amendments to the Pouts bill which were adopted in the senate yesterday, authorizing a state levy of one quarter of a mill to raise $5,000,000 in the next few years for rehabilitation of state hospitals, providing additional facilities for caring for the feeble-minded and creating a building fund for the state universities.

The Ring bill, amending the compulsory school attendance law passed the senate yesterday and is now ready for the governor's approval.

The Kirk bill to penalize teachers who give their schools without notice, by prohibiting them from teaching, the remainder of the term, was also awaiting the governor's approval to make it a law.

WOULD-BE HOLDUP MAN CAPTURED

Assaults A. S. Russell of Kroger Store But Fails to Get Money—Is Caught After Long Chase.

James Driscoll, 21, of 271 Boylston avenue was captured about 12:30 o'clock by American Legion following his attempt to rob the Kroger grocery store at Hudson avenue and Oak street. He was turned over to the police who are holding him on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

According to A. S. Russell, manager of the store, Driscoll entered shortly after noon today while Russell was alone and asked for some cakes. While Russell was handing the cakes Driscoll hit him on the head with a black jack, knocking him unconscious.

Just before he was hit Russell called for help and was heard by Roy Gilfen who made his home with Robert Fulton of 228 Hudson avenue. Gilfen started in pursuit and was later followed by Clyde McCarthy of 136 North Fifth street who came on a bicycle. Driscoll was kept in sight while he headed east and was finally captured near the swimming bridge east of the American Legion company plan. McCarthy assisted Gilfen in securing him with him to the scene of the attempted robbery where he was turned over to the police.

Russell had a gash an inch long made in his scalp. It would be healed by Driscoll. Dr. Williams, who was just across the street when the assault occurred, said Driscoll's injury is not serious. He lives at 41 Fulton avenue.

SHIPPING WAGE CUT TOO MUCH

Spokesman For Seamen's Union Tells Shipping Board Union Can Not Accept 15 Per Cent Reduction.

Washington, April 27.—A sharp difference in opinion as to wage reductions between Chairman Benson of the shipping board and a spokesman for the maritime workers developed at the annual day of conferences called by the chairman in an effort to avert a threatened strike on American steamers on May 1.

Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen's Union and other spokesmen for the workers declared that a 15 per cent wage reduction declared by Rear Admiral Benson to be necessary was unacceptable to the unions.

PENNSY COMPANY CUTS DOWN DIVIDEND

Philadelphia, April 27.—The Pennsylvania railroad company today reduced its quarterly dividend to one percent.

The decrease is a quarterly reduction on one half per cent. This is the first time in 22 years the Pennsylvania has reduced the annual dividend basis below six per cent. Since 1899 it has paid six per cent annually with the exception of 1906 when it paid 6 1/2 and in 1907 when it returned seven per cent. For seven years prior to 1899, the dividends were five per cent.

COMMITTEE MAY BE NAMED TO FRAME TAX LAW

Conference Committee of House and Senate Is Probable.

Senate Adopts Whittemore Resolution on Classification of Property.

Columbus, April 27.—Appointment of an informal conference committee composed of three members of the senate and three members of the house to agree upon a tax proposal to be submitted to the voters next November was expected to be announced today following adoption in the senate yesterday of the Whittemore classification resolution and agreement of the house to adopt today the Pouts resolution taxing real and personal property by uniform rule and taxing intangibles at not less than five mills.

The Whittemore resolution which abrogates the uniform rule permits adoption of classification and writes a tax limitation on real estate into the constitution of 15 mills in rural districts and 18 mills in cities, will be before the house today. It will be no doubt a resolution. Both will be referred to the informal conference committee to be named, which is expected to recommend for passage a compromise proposal.

Uniform rule advocates were preparing for the final battle with those favoring classification. Governor Davis has urged senate and house leaders to recommend some taxation proposal to the voters. House leaders were not optimistic over the outcome today. They had little hope of the senate accepting the Pouts proposal and said they were confident the house would not adopt the Whittemore proposal in its present form.

The Griswold debt limitation proposal which has already passed the house was to come before the senate for passage today. A lively contest is expected on the proposal to insert an amendment to the constitution which would permit cities to extend or acquire public utilities. The senate committee on taxation refused to accept the amendment.

The Brand bill changing existing methods of levying school revenue funds reducing the rate from eight-tenths mill state levy to fifteen-tenths of a mill, was ready for Governor Davis' signature today.

MINIMUM WAGE BILL IS KILLED

Senate Committee On Manufacturing Rejects Measure By Vote of 4 to 3—New Bill Proposed.

Columbus, April 27.—Although the senate committee on manufacturing and commerce killed the Schrimper minimum wage bill for women and minors last night, by a vote of 4 to 3, proponents of the bill have not given up hope today of passage of this bill. A substitute bill recommended by the committee which advocates of the Schrimper bill rejected, is said to be similar to the Massachusetts minimum wage law. It provides that the lieutenant governor, secretary of state and treasurer of state shall constitute the minimum wage commission. Payment of minimum wage would be permissive. No penalties for violator are provided. The classes of women workers would be included.

The substitute bill was introduced in the committee by Senator Chatfield of Hamilton county. It will be championed by Majority Leader Whittemore. Senator J. E. Burke, flycatcher, will lead the fight for the Schrimper bill. He asks that this be substituted for the bill recommended by the committee.

Senator C. F. Brand, Champaign county, previously counted as a supporter of the Schrimper bill, switched last night and voted to report out the substitute bill.

Governor Davis has endorsed the principal of minimum wages for women but did not endorse the Schrimper bill. Advocates of the Schrimper bill appealed to the governor today for his support.

OHIO OBSERVES GRANT BIRTHDAY

Agitation To Restore His Log Cabin Birthplace To Point Pleasant Grows
Warm.

Columbus, April 27.—Ninety nine years ago, in a two-room cottage of a struggling settlement of 12 houses, perched on a river bank, 25 miles south-east of Cincinnati, one of the most illustrious of Ohio's sons was born—General Ulysses S. Grant.

Today in various sections of the country, the American people are celebrating that event. It is of particular interest to Ohioans, because there is a struggle on now as to what shall be done with the cabin Grant was born in. The little log structure is in Columbus, now, and has been for years, an attraction to the state fair. Point Pleasant, Grant's birthplace, wants it; the city of Columbus wants it for establishment in its proposed civic center.

The first definite move to do anything with the cabin was made last week, when Representative Edgington of Cincinnati, introduced in the house a joint resolution providing for the removal of the cabin to the Grant homestead at Point Pleasant.

The move to return the cottage has the backing of a group of Ohio men, students of Grant, led by Hugh L. Nichols of Cincinnati and Batavia, former chief justice of the Ohio supreme court. The association is making plans for an elaborate celebration next year, the centennial of Grant's birth.

That the resolution introduced by Edgington will be fought by members of the state board of agriculture, and city officials here, is expected.

General Grant was not long a resident of Point Pleasant. His family moved from there when he was a year old, to Georgetown, county seat of the adjoining county, Brown, where he lived until he was 17 years old, when he entered West Point.

Grant attended the subscription schools of Georgetown, and in his personal memoirs, deprecates the lack of educational facilities. "I never saw an algebra, or other mathematical work higher than the arithmetic, until I went to West Point," he wrote.

That Grant's early life in Ohio was one of the most enjoyable periods of his life, is seen by his memoirs. He tells of how eager he was to travel, and of journeying east to Wheeling, and north to the Western Reserve in Ohio, and of earning his first penny by selling a quantity of old rags in Cincinnati.

The convention as a whole will be different this year. The convention proper will be held on May 18 and a program will be provided for that day. On the evening of the 18, Arthur F. Arnold, state secretary, of Columbus, will give an illustrated lecture of his trip to the Orient and the World's Sunday school convention held in Tokio last October.

On Thursday an institute will be held; conferences will be conducted by the state division superintendents. The morning conferences will be held for county and township officers; the afternoon conferences for Bible school officers and teachers.

Pat thinks Dick is wilfully neglecting her and is very unhappy. When some of her circus friends come to visit her, she goes back to the circus with them. She is not happy there, either, for she has now lost her taste for the old life. Dick comes after her, sorry for his neglect, and they are married.

As Muriel Rossmore, Miss Bennett will please. The story: Rex Rossmore, a young lawyer, after a few years of married life, discovers that his wife does not appeal to his sense of affection. His wife Muriel who is more interested in getting a bargain in a rib-roast than in having her hair permanently waved, does not realize that her tendencies to remain old-fashioned are becoming irritable to her husband. Although Rex loves her, he cannot help but feel a certain amount of repulsiveness toward her indifference for personal appearance.

Effie Wainwright, private secretary to Rex Rossmore, is a pretty girl, possessing an ability to dress well on next to nothing in salary. Rex sees the contrast between Effie and his wife, and, Effie's dauntless appeals to him. A few nights later when his wife chooses to remain at home and prepare new recipes instead of going to the opera, for which Rex has obtained tickets, he calls Effie, who gladly accompanies him.

When Rex's attention to Effie becomes so noticeable that it is noted in social circles, he calls Effie, who gladly accompanies him. When Rex's attention to Effie becomes so noticeable that it is noted in social circles, he calls Effie, who gladly accompanies him.

She returns home, intending to end her life. As she is about to take curative acid she looks into the mirror and sees her hair in disordered condition. She decides that it would be more creditable to appear prettier in death. Hence she puts on a stunning gown and with the assistance of the maid, does her hair up in a striking fashion. Then again, as she is about to end her life, she discovers that she is a really pretty girl, so another plan takes shape in her brain.

Muriel procures several new gowns, has her hair waved, learns to smoke cigarettes and in a fashionable tea garden meets Hal Gordon, known as the "classy" chicken connoisseur. Other meetings with Gordon follow while Muriel's husband continues his attentions to Effie.

Then, one night, when Rex comes home to prepare for an evening with Effie, Muriel informs him that she is going to a party and asks him to come. He decides to go. At the party he sees his wife as the center of attraction of a score of men, and particularly Gordon. He keeps his temper until they return home.

Muriel explains the reasons for her sudden change and informs Rex that her knowledge of his true nature was the cause of it. But he has had enough of the fashionable and hilarious side of life and is contented and happy in her return to her former ideas of domesticity.

A RIGHTEOUS PRAYER:—Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.—Psalm 51, 10.

BACK YARD FRUIT.

Formerly many people in Newark used to have a few fruit trees or vines in their back yards. Of recent years there has been so much complaint about thefts of the product thereof by boys that many householders have allowed the old trees and vines to die down and have not replaced them. They say it is more bother to keep the fruit than it is worth.

This is not a universal complaint in all neighborhoods. In some the children are well brought up and are trained to let their neighbors' property alone. In others a wild lot of youngsters will roam through all the back lots. They have spotted every tree and vine in their territory, and they know just when each one will ripen and they do not forget the date of the same.

Children brought up in this loose way have not made a start for good citizenship. A good way to handle them is to let them develop some garden products of their own. Then they begin to sympathize with the person who owns the fruit.

The people who grow about the cost of membership fees in their town boosting organization are usually about the same ones who claim that their home town is a dead one.

A good many people as usual are celebrating spring cleaning by removing the rubbish from the front yard, and making an unsightly pile of it out back of the house.

The man is not choiced in these times by brass rails and fittings in the saloons, but then he can stay at home and contemplate the brass and iron in the fire place.

Manual training teaches to believe in educating the eye and the hand, both of which must be trained. The young men are going to be able to play base ball.

You couldn't persuade a boy to aspire to be a college president if he thought there was a chance he could become captain of a local fire company.

After taking away our entire savings by heavy taxes, the government sends us circulars asking us to invest our surplus in treasury certificates.

While the children should be encouraged to study art, they need not feel it necessary to decorate the new wall paper with pencil sketches.

Being urged to remove disorder about the place the boys are breaking some more shed and chicken windows so they will all look uniform.

The men of Newark sadly reflect that the more tasteful the millinery grows, the more the woman folks think it necessary to have new hats.

Now that income and outgo and assets are so highly taxed as possible, the next step will be to tax everybody on their debts and liabilities.

There is a very strong demand for a new political party, on the part of those who have not been provided with an office by the old ones.

Whereas the women used to roll up their sleeves so as to operate at the washtubs, now they do so because they have beautiful arms.

Some girls seem to think they make themselves attractive by showing up a wide expanse of hard boiled skin to the indifferent gaze.

The first step in marketing the peach crop, is to give out the information that the entire product has been ruined by the frosts.

Many people are willing to make a harmonious adjustment of labor troubles provided they can have their own way.

The German government is willing to work for peace, provided the other nations will permit it to do what it sees fit.

Formerly the men took off their coats so they could work better, now they do it to show off their silk shirts.

MISS PAUL ON "AMNESTY."

(Illinois State Register)
Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's party, who is among these urging amnesty for "political prisoners" in general and Eugene V. Debs in particular, says in a letter to the political amnesty committee that there is no question that Eugene V. Debs should be given his liberty and restored to full rights of citizenship at once. In fighting for their rights women have learned that it is sometimes necessary to go to jail to keep their liberties. I think Debs has won the respect of millions of his country men and women. I hope President Harding will see what is the wise course in this matter.

Leaving out of consideration the palpable fact that Debs is not in any way a "political" prisoner, being under sentence not because of his opinions but for violating a criminal status of the United States, Miss Paul's plea is a specious one, founded upon a misstatement of fact. Women in this country have not found it necessary to go to jail to obtain their rights. When certain women engaged in a militant campaign for suffrage and ended in jail it was not on account of their advocacy of the ballot for women, but because they violated the law. The fact that they finally attained their wish was not due to their self imposed martyrdom but in spite of it. The law abiding woman, as well as the law-abiding men of the country, who fortunately are in the majority, recognize this fact and pay little attention to the claims of the minority that they were in any way responsible for the adoption of a policy that was already ripe for adoption and whose campaign had been won by reason and not by coercion.

If President Harding should see fit to extend clemency to Debs or any other lawbreakers, who is paying the penalty of his crimes against society, the leaders of the amnesty movement may rest assured that there will be in the act consummation of their offenses, but merely a decision that the time has come when the best interests of society no longer demands a continuance of their punishment. Whatever may be done in the matter should be done in such manner as to show that these sob sisters and sympathy mongers have had nothing to do with it.

BORROWED HUSBANDS
By MILDRED K. BARBOUR

XCIII.—Irresponsible Peggy.

"Oh, you poor darling!" cried Nancy, stooping down, and gathering Seriram into her arms. "What have they done to you?"

She buried her chin in the poor bearded remnant of what had formerly been her fluffy white ruff. It smelt strongly of burned hair, and Nancy had an instantaneous vision of the incorrigible Harding baby touching a match to her cat's lovely silky fur.

"The little brute! I'd like to wring its neck!" she said between her teeth. "Senny, darling, did they hurt awfully?"

There was a tap on the door, and before Nancy could say "come," it opened. "Peggy, how lovely you look!"

"Nancy darling, what a treat! How glad I am to see you! Isn't it splendid you came in time for the party? Mother and Dad were so delighted that they had to entertain. I knew you wouldn't mind if they gave one wee little dinner. How lovely you look! Do you miss Senny awfully? Are a lot of other men making love to you?"

"Peggy, for Heaven's sake!" gasped Nancy. "Stop for breath and let me catch mine too! Tell me what you've done to Seriram. I'm much more interested in that than in your dinner party."

"Oh, that!" Peggy shrugged her shoulders above an American beauty bodice, which was clasped to her slender form by a single ornament of rubies.

"You're certainly an optimist if you dare shrug in that gown," remarked Senny. "But what does 'Oh, that' mean?" He looks like a remnant of a dog's skin."

"Well, you see," explained Peggy. "Senny scratched the baby when he was playing with him on the hearth in your sitting room, and the baby dropped him right into the gas hole. It's amazing what a temper baby has inherited from his father."

"You may say it to me, but I call it murder!" remarked Senny. "Well, you ought to see Senny!" declared Peggy indignantly. "He has a horrid scratch clear down his arm."

Nancy murmured something about

"Serving the little beast right," put down the cat, and began to unfasten her gown.

"Let's not discuss it, Peggy. I'm late now for a dinner engagement with a man who hates to be kept waiting. Can you spare the maid to draw my bath and help hook me up when I'm ready?"

"Oh, my dear, I'm afraid we can't. She's just taking in the cocktails."

Nancy turned in surprise from the mirror where she was starting to take down her hair.

"Lucky Peggy! Where did you get it?"

Peggy looked a trifle confused. "Why, we—we found some bottles in the buffet that Gerry had evidently opened and forgotten about. It really isn't good to keep that stuff standing around once it's been opened, so we thought we'd use it and get you fresh bottles. Now, wasn't that thoughtful of us?"

"Very!" agreed Nancy, grimly. "Your consideration is quite overwhelming."

"I know you'd think so!" declared Peggy. "Nancy, how lovely you look! So much prettier than when you went away. I believe you must be in love."

"How clever you are, Peggy! You know precisely the psychological moment to compliment one, don't you?"

Peggy pointed prettily, and Nancy, half-averted and half-amused, put an arm about her and propelled her gently out of the door.

"Run along or I'll never get dressed."

She was just ready for her tub, when the stage comedy maid appeared.

Exercise for Round Shoulders.
If your shoulders are round take these exercises. Stand erect in some sort of loose costume with no corsets on. Raise the arms from their limp position at the sides, breathing in as you do this exercise. Now, bring the arms back as far as possible. This is in reality a double exercise and may be divided into two if desired.

The raising of the arms above the head, lowering them and flinging them back is an exercise designed especially to correct round shoulders. The upward motion and deep breathing is another exercise that applies more to developing the chest than it does to the shoulders.

Face and circular puffs under the eyes are frequently caused by the lack of needed glasses and instead of adding to one's years, they often improve one's appearance and make a woman look more beautiful. Rounded shoulders and accompanying fatigue are of ten caused by the lack of glasses by women who have pride in clear unclouded eyes.

Our Boys and Girls

When a home consists of only a few rooms, sometimes a study corner may be arranged for the use of the children. You can arrange a chiffonier for storing books, papers, etc. in the warm spring days, when all nature calls them to the outdoors, and you will save yourself much work when you keep their school and study things all in one place.

Everyday Etiquette

"If I refuse to dance with a man is it permissible for me to accept a dance with another?" asked Essie.

"It is not considered just the thing unless the second man had a understanding with you beforehand, in which case you should so tell the first man who asks you," said her aunt.

TRULY ALL-STAR IS "LAST OF THE MOHICANS."

When Maurice Tourneur picked his cast for J. Fenimore Cooper's famous Leather Stocking tale, "The Last of the Mohicans," to be seen at the Auditorium theater Friday and Saturday, he searched for the best artists.

The beloved Uncas, last of the Mohicans, could not be a wrist watch-wearing Broadway actor of the screen hero type. He had to be a spiritual character, with a real man to be the carrier of Uncas' message. Hence Tourneur examined many actors, until he found Albert Roscoe, who is an eighth Osage Indian, and a well-known leading man. He shaved his hair, bared his body and made up for the part.

Magna, the Hun-like redskin, who betrays the whites, is in the capable hands of Wallace Beery, noted villain and bad man, who carries off all honors for playing mean parts.

The Colonel's two daughters, Cora and Alice, played by Barbara Bedford and Lillian Hall, respectively, are pretty pictures on the silver screen.

"The Last of the Mohicans" is a supporting player, for each is a star. Henry Woodward, playing Maj. Heyward, is Tourneur's regular leading man, and does some fine work in this picture.

Others in the big all-star cast are Hawkeye (Harry Lorraine), Giamut, Nelson McDowall, Chingachgook, Theodore Lerch, Tamenund, Jack Mc Donald, Indian, Joseph Singleton, and numerous others.

What Is It You Want In Your Car? What Qualities Do You Expect?

You want a car of sturdy durability that is reliable in its service, a car of generous power and real flexibility of power, a car that rides comfortably and has plenty of room, a car that has proved its qualities, a car of which the upkeep cost is low and the operating costs most economical, a car that is easy to handle, a car of beauty of design, style and finish that you will be proud of, a car upholstered in genuine hand-buffed leather, a car built by a company of wide resources and experience, and you want this kind of a car at a price within your means.

All These Qualities the Cleveland Six Provides for You

THE Cleveland Six, product of men highly skilled in automobile engineering and production, is built in one of the most modern, efficient factories of the industry. It has won praise everywhere for its dependable service.

Why Choose a Four When You Can Have a Six?

The exclusive Cleveland motor is the most highly refined of the overhead valve type and is alive with a wealth of power and flexibility of power that you cannot find in fours, and in few sixes. The car owner is rare, indeed, who has gone back to a four after owning a six.

It Rides Rough Roads Like a Car Weighing Twice as Much

It takes rough roads comfortably at thirty miles an hour, over which you would hesitate to drive in many cars at more than fifteen miles. This extraordinary roadability is due to the scientific distribution of weight and the long low underslung spring construction.

Service for 20,000 Owners Has Established Cleveland Quality

These owners tell us of the Cleveland's better qualities. They tell us of its wonderful performance on long tours and in daily service. They say they can count on it to do what they want it to do.

18 to 23 Miles on Gasoline 12,000 to 15,000 on Tires

The upkeep cost of the Cleveland is kept down to a minimum by the high-grade material entering into all parts of the car, the accuracy of the machining and the extreme care in assembly. And the cost of operating the Cleveland is very low. Cleveland owners report average season gasoline mileage records of from 18 to 23 miles. The big four-inch cord tires make tire mileage of 12,000 to 15,000 customary, and there are many owners' reports of even higher mileage.

There Is No Strain In Driving a Cleveland

The Cleveland is undoubtedly one of the most easily handled cars ever designed. The gear lever, right by the driver's side, works at a touch.

Your Friends Will Admire Your Cleveland

You will be proud of the appearance of any Cleveland model you select. All four of these are of splendid style, designed on harmonious lines, dignified and lustrously finished.

Hand-Buffed Leather Does Not Check or Crack

The Cleveland touring car and roadster are upholstered in high-grade, genuine hand-buffed leather, the best upholstery you could ask for. Many cars in the Cleveland general price field are upholstered in machine-buffed leather or imitation leather.

Deeply Cushioned at Comfort Angles

All four models are deeply cushioned, with the cushions at comfort angles. The sedan and coupe are upholstered in fine velour and are as comfortable as overstuffed chairs.

Stability and Assurance Back of Every Cleveland

The Cleveland car is produced by a strong, responsible, financially stable organization of long association in the building of fine cars. You can feel every assurance in selecting its product.

There's No Other Car To Equal It At Such a Low Price

There are light fours and light sixes selling a little below or above its price, and some quite considerably above its price, no one of which offers such real value as the Cleveland.

If it were possible for you to compare them with the Cleveland as to engineering design, as to quality of material entering into the car, as to details of equipment and as to its actual performance, you would know there is no other to match it at such a low price.

Error in Price On Window Shades In T. L. Davies Ad

A typographical error appeared in the display advertisement of the T. L. Davies store published in Tuesday's issue of the Advocate. The price on $1.00 window shades reads 29 cents, this price should have read 69 cents, a reduction of 31 cents from the regular selling price. These shades are of unusual quality at the price and patrons upon inspection will find them a splendid value at the price asked, 69 cents each. The price on Jay Rag Rugs was also wrongly quoted in this advertisement. The selling price read $2.25 it should have read, $2.25 Jay Rag Rugs special $1.39. 4-27-1f

CEDAR HILL MAUSOLEUM.

Chas. R. Rayner, General Manager of the Licking Mausoleum Construction company, issued a statement today regarding the building, his company is erecting in the Cedar Hill cemetery. The progress of our work in the solution field here has astonished me. I had quite supposed that we would have devoted at least six months to getting subscribers for space before having sufficient to guarantee construction and building operations have already been started. The building was intended to contain 240 community crypts and it may surprise you to know that this number has been over-subscribed for and in order to supply the demand for this particular space we have found it necessary to open another part of the building that had been intended for family sections and to add City crypts and these are being taken very rapidly.

It took exactly eight months in Zanesville to reach the point we are at in Newark after four months actual working time. You will probably understand the extreme satisfaction that this demonstration by comparison gives to our work. 4-27-1f

NERVE FORCE IS LIFE FORCE

The Nerve system is One of the Most Important Systems of the Whole Body, and Has a Direct Connection With Every Vital Organ. If Your Nervous System is Deranged, and Your Nerve Force Low, Your Whole Constitution Suffers. Watch Your Nerves.

The entire system can be compared to a delicate piece of machinery, and must be given care the same as you would give to your automobile. Throughout the body runs a series of nerves, and in different parts of the body nerve centers are located. This nervous system can be likened to a telephone system, the brain being the main office which controls the workings of the entire system, and the various nerve centers throughout the body being substations which are in control. If any part of this nervous system becomes deranged through the ravages of sickness or from constant strain of every day life the entire body suffers. Nerve force flows constantly throughout the entire nervous system, and each vital organ is directly connected with and dependent upon these nerve centers and a full supply of nerve force. Your vitality, your digestion and general health all require a certain amount of nerve force. When your nerve force is low, your system is quick to show the results. Don't let yourself become run down, for Nerve-Worth will quickly rectify these conditions and help your system throughout. It gives sound restful sleep, and invigorates the entire nervous system, and while doing this, it aids the digestive system, the assimilation of food and tones and invigorates your whole body building up and strengthening you. If you don't feel just exactly right, or suffer from any nervous or stomach disorder, get a bottle of Nerve-Worth today, and give it a trial, and if you don't say it has helped you after you have taken your first bottle, your money will be refunded.—Adv

SPEAKER PLAYS CHESS WITH MANAGER COBB

Cleveland, April 27.—Tris Speaker, leader of the world's champion Cleveland Indians can use three suits of battles to overcome the strategy of opposing managers who desire to switch their pitchers to make Speaker change his lineup. This was demonstrated yesterday by using Tris in League record by using Tris in three players in the game with Detroit.

Later he replaced Jones, Gusto and Granger with Wood, Bantz and Evans, all right handed. When Emke, a right handed pitcher relieved Cole on the mound, Speaker sent Smith to right field and Johnson to first base and used Jamieson who has been playing left field when a right handed pitcher worked for the opposition, as a pinch hitter.

The only men in uniform whom Speaker did not use in yesterday's game were Pitchers, Coudeskie, Maults and Port and Infielders, Wagner, Speaker, Stephenson, Sewell and Gardner were the only Indians to play throughout the game.

DENIES FREIGHT RATES CAUSE DEPRESSION

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has taken up the charge frequently made by certain of the agricultural and industrial interests that the present business depression can be blamed on high freight rates and President Willard, of the Baltimore & Ohio, has issued a statement denying the charge. Mr. Willard says that while he does not believe the effect of increased freight rates, it would not be practicable to make a material readjustment of these rates in advance of the reduction in operating expenses.

"I have personally asked many large manufacturing and shipping concerns," said Mr. Willard "what effect it would have upon their shipments at the present moment if freight charges were reduced altogether and if the railroad would move the tonnage free of charge. Invariably the answer has been that it would practically make no difference at all in the volume of business because people are not buying at present."

In a circular issued to the public the Baltimore & Ohio emphasizes the point that the main effort of the railroad at the present time is to reduce their cost of operation but the claim is made that the present under present conditions it is a fact that the freight rates in relation to present prices of nearly all commodities are lower than they were in 1914 or in other years, that rail transportation today represents a smaller percentage of average selling prices than in 1914.

FOUR TRAINS CARRY BIG ROBINSON CIRCUS

In the South they exclaim: "Uncle John's coming!" And everywhere when the colorful posters splashed the landscape and "city-scape" with the pictorial wonders of the big show, the children eyes to their fathers, "John Robinson's circus is coming!"

So it has come for decades, for this is the ninth eighth annual tour of the United States and Canada of the oldest and the best circus of them all, so the advance hosts proudly assert.

John Robinson comes to Newark on four trains Tuesday, May 3 and it comes this year with three things two engines, an aerobically minded and a hummingbird truck full of the wonders of the world of the bar tops. Next, four hundred aerial stunts take part in the pageantry and the performances, which take part at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m.

There are twenty-five hundred people with the circus and over seven hundred animals. The big top will seat 12,000 people. The city of tents will actually cover eleven acres of ground the advanced agents state.

The great parade, two miles in length with all eyes and ears of the city looking upon it will afford the circus day crowds many novel sights. There are twenty-five elephants with the show.

SENATORS WIN AGAIN.

Columbus, April 27.—Members of the "Knot Hole Gang" helped to make the crowd which saw Columbus defeat Indianapolis yesterday, 4 to 2, the largest which has seen any wreaking game in this city in five years, possibly in a decade. There were 2655 paid admissions at the ball lot yesterday and, including 1000 or so members of the "Knot Hole Gang" assembled in the left field bleachers, there were probably close to 4000 people in the lot when Shannon grabbed Kinsella's fly for the game-ending play.

Hundreds of the older citizens have taken Dreco with splendid results. Those suffering from aching, painful joints and muscles, unsound sleep, weak appetite, constipation and other symptoms declare Dreco has aided them very much. For instance, Mr. E. F. "I have found great relief in two bottles of Dreco. It strengthened my kidneys, stopped the backache, eased my painful joints and sore muscles, regulated my constipated bowels, stopped the dizziness and renewed my strength and vigor. Really I'm feeling very much stronger, and can see that all my troubles have been helped by taking Dreco."

Dreco is composed of the juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and berries, which act on the stomach, kidneys, liver, bowels, and purify the blood. It relieves constipation, prevents gas forming in the stomach, increases the appetite, insured sound, refreshing sleep, banishes cararrh of the head and takes the pain out of rheumatic joints.

There are bills for Carpet Cleaning, wages of the woman who sweeps and dusts, expense to launder draperies (darkened) by swept-up clouds of dust, the cost of new brooms, etc. But your biggest expense is the cost of new Rugs to replace worn-out ones. Unless Rugs are regularly beaten by the Hoover grit embeds itself in them. Under shoe pressure the destructive embedded grit gradually cuts away the nap. Hoover prevents such wear. Many times over it pays for itself in this way alone.

ROTARY CLUB NAMES DIRECTORS

Five Are Elected at Meeting Held Tuesday Night—Election of President Is Postponed.

At the Rotary meeting last night at Masonic Temple A. B. Crawford, Rev. Carlos Hanks, O. J. Barnes and G. E. Pickup were elected to serve as directors of the club for the coming year. As A. B. Crawford is out of the city attending the Chamber of Commerce convention at Atlantic City the board was not able to organize permanently and so no president of the club can be announced until Mr. Crawford returns. The board however re-elected Ralph L. Davis, secretary and treasurer for the coming year and appointed George E. Pickup to preside at the meeting next Tuesday.

Retiring President Frank L. Beggs was presented with a bouquet of roses by the members of the club in appreciation of his loyal and efficient leadership during the past year. The presentation being made by Rotarian E. C. Wright.

The annual report of the treasurer for the year ending March 1, 1921 made by Ralph L. Davis and an auditing committee of L. M. Krieg and H. F. Darrow was approved and accepted by the club.

Mr. E. M. Edmiston read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Eliza J. Rankins, librarian of a tubercular hospital for service men at Asheville, N. C., for the reading matter sent her for the boys by the Rotary club.

President Beggs in his report of activities for the year expressed his appreciation for the loyal assistance rendered him by the various committees, the board of directors and the secretary and the individual members. He summarized the work of the club along the lines of Crippled Children work, Boys Work and Rotary Education. He recommended more music, a revision of the constitution and by laws and a simplification of the books of the secretary so that a weekly report could be made to the Board of Directors.

CHRISTIAN HOMES NEEDED EVANGELIST DECLARES

"After visiting a good many homes, one wonders not why so many children go wrong, but how, inside of their environment, so many go right," said Rev. A. E. Cowley at the Second Baptist church last night. Mr. Cowley said that while many parents teach their children geography and politics, they refuse to teach them religion. He says that they do not want to prejudice their minds toward religion. It reminds one of the man who did not want to prejudice his garden in favor of growing roses.

"If a good many men just took as much interest in their stock as they do in the moral training of their boys, their business would collapse tomorrow. If we had fewer prodigal fathers we would have fewer prodigal sons" he said.

Over a dozen have confessed Christ during the meetings. Mr. Cowley's subject tonight is "The Woman Who Can Make Up Her Mind."

SURGEONS LEARN MUCH FROM WAR

Strange Condition Known As Shock Is Studied in Hospital.

Are Able to Treat Cases With More Success.

Cambridge, Mass., April 26.—Discoveries made by Dr. Walter B. Cannon of the Harvard Medical School and other American, British and French medical officers toward the close of the world war have brought forth new evidence regarding the cause and nature of the strange condition known as "shock," a condition that led to innumerable deaths in war time and frequently has a similar result after accidents in time of peace.

"Shock, or wound-shock as it is often called, has long baffled the medical profession," Dr. Cannon said today to The Associated Press, on being asked to describe the results of his important work in France.

"This condition, which by the way should not be confused with shell-shock, an entirely different phenomenon, usually develops some hours after a serious wound or accident. It frequently followed grave shell-wounds in the war, and often comes on after a person has been seriously hurt in an accident in times of peace, after, for example he has had a limb crushed in a railroad accident.

"A man in a state of shock usually lies perfectly quiet, his skin is cold and moist with sweat, his pulse is rapid and thready, his arterial pressure is much reduced, he breathes rapidly and superficially, and although not paralyzed he has little energy and his mind is dulled. He often complains of being cold and thirsty. This condition may be followed by death or by gradual recovery.

"There have been numerous theories of the nature of shock. Some doctors hold that shock results from nervous collapse, others that it came from a closing of blood vessels by fat from wounds, some that it was due to paralysis of the nerves controlling the arteries, others that the adrenal gland was somehow affected so as to do the mischief, and so on.

"Our work in France gave us opportunities to study shock in the utmost detail. One by one we threw out the theories advanced in former years.

"We finally tested and established the fact that the condition results from the tearing or crushing of muscles or other tissues by missiles moving with terrific velocity. The damaged or dead tissue soon becomes toxic, or in other words acts like a sort of poison. This toxin causes an increase in the activity of the smallest bloodvessels, the capillaries, and thus there is lost through their walls quantities of the fluid portion of the blood which should be in circulation. The result is somewhat similar to that of great loss of blood from the body.

"American, British and French medical and surgical officers co-operated in the investigations, some of which were made at Bethune in 1917, some in London, and others at Dijon in 1918 in a laboratory of the American Expeditionary Force under Dr. Cannon's direction.

"Toward the end of the war we had learned much about methods of treating such cases, finding that it was helpful to keep the patient snugly warm, to give him quantities of water, and if necessary to transfuse blood into his system from somebody else's," he said.

"The mass of information about shock which was collected during the war and will ultimately be published is going to prove useful in times of peace, for the condition often develops after accidents of various kinds in which there is extensive tearing or crushing of tissues, and physicians will now be able to handle such cases more effectively than ever before."

Dr. Cannon is now engaged at the Harvard Physiological Laboratory in studies of the functions of the thyroid gland, following his discoveries in recent years concerning the adrenal glands.

Columbus, April 27.—Years of litigation were ended yesterday when the supreme court settled a case brought by John N. Russell, administrator of the estate of J. N. Russell brought the action in 1912, seeking to compel the bank to transfer to him, as administrator, thirty shares of stock which had been standing in the name of the decedent in 1885, or instead, an accounting of dividends. The bank asserted the stock was transferred to another, at the request of the decedent, in 1887, and dividends had been paid to him.

There were three trials, the court of appeals finally holding for the bank, which judgment was affirmed by the supreme court.

It was announced yesterday by G. V. Hamory, local capitalist. Mr. Hamory said the depot will be built on Erie land, a lease for which was signed in New York yesterday. Part of the building will be rented as offices and store rooms. The arrangement will be a temporary one, it is said, as the Erie expects to build a depot and office building of its own within a few years.

A BIG SUCCESS The 7-reel super-production

HALF A CHANCE

— WITH — Mahlon Hamilton

— AND — LILLIAN RICH

A virile-pulsed drama of a prize fighter, battered by fate, bleeding in body and seared in soul, who gets half a chance by a shipwreck accident, and comes back to claim the fruit out of which he was cheated. A drama of big moments, big clashes, emotional climaxes and tremendous heart interest. Miss a meal but don't miss Half a Chance.
